

Please don't stifle competition and first amendment rights. If the local broadcasters stepped up to the plate to offer better selection and service than I'd consider listening to them.
Competition is good for everyone!